

New Report Format - Parent Satisfaction Survey - April 2017

Summary of Responses

Evaluation

- Parents are happy with the form of the new report
- Parents agree that the report provider clear and concise information regarding progress and effort
- Parents understand the progress their child is making

Action

- Abbreviations should be explained more fully
- More info to parents Re: Assessment at BPS

Parent Comments

- I found the format easy to understand and gets straight to the point
- Much prefer this concise format. Had to google MFL & PSHE
- It's a comprehensive and useful report....it's an improvement
- This is so much better to understand progress.
- A useful format - providing important details and overview.